2009 NMEA Notification

Garmin International is pleased to continue two programs for our qualified installers in 2009 – The Onboard Warranty Program and the Installation Rebate Credit Program. These programs will allow qualified National Marine Electronics Association (NMEA) installers to offer their customers a two year On Board Warranty on our marine network products as well as put cash in their pockets on every eligible installation. To become qualified, Garmin International requires each dealer to obtain certification through NMEA. NMEA has announced their marine technical training schedule for 2009 which will be held in several cities across the continental United States and Canada. We are pleased to work with NMEA to promote their 2009 certification classes and have attached the 2009 NMEA training schedule for your review. As Garmin continues to grow its marine product line, we understand the need for quality marine training. The Garmin marine product lines have greatly increased the need for qualified installation and service technicians in order to meet our dealer and consumer demands. And while these products have set a benchmark for ease of use, the technical understanding needed to support these products has increased dramatically. For more information about the On Board Warranty Program or the Installation Rebate Credit Program please check with your Regional Sales Manager. For more information about the NMEA classes go to www.nmea.org.
